Happiness is Benhaven

School Song

Come let all thy sons and daughters,
Sing, O school, of thee,
Raise aloud in joyful chorus
Songs of loyalty.
Lift your voices, let them tell
Of love and faithfulness.
Working always, working ever,
For Old B.H.S

Chorus

I'm a Benhaven born,
I'm a Benhaven bred,
And when I die,
I'm a Benhaven dead!
So it's RAH! RAH! Benhaven-haven,
RAH! RAH! Benhaven-haven,
RAH! RAH! Benhaven,
RAH! RAH! RAH!

Oft in many a heated contest,
Working with their might,
Will thy students for thine honor
Strive to win the fight.
Lift your voices, let them tell
Of love and faithfulness.
Working always, working ever,
For Old B.H.S.

Soon from you thy sons and daughters,
Parted all will be.
Yet we'll strive, yea all the harder,
To bring renown to thee.
Lift your voices, let them tell
Of love and faithfulness.
Working always, working ever,
For Old B.H.S.

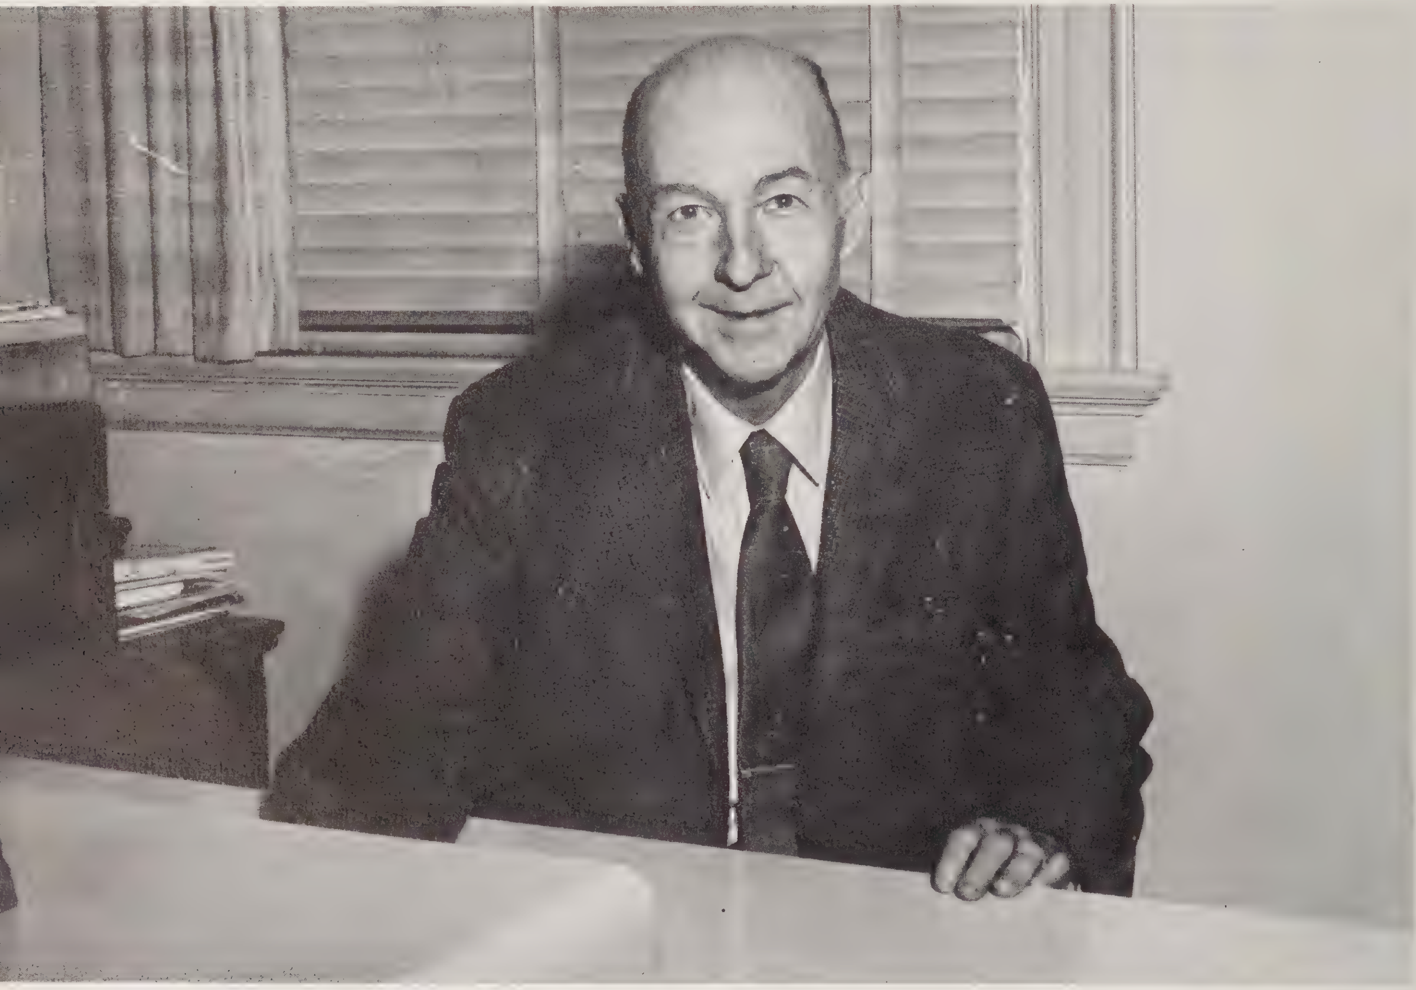
Mr. Harrington and an office worker stock the "Real Thing" machine.

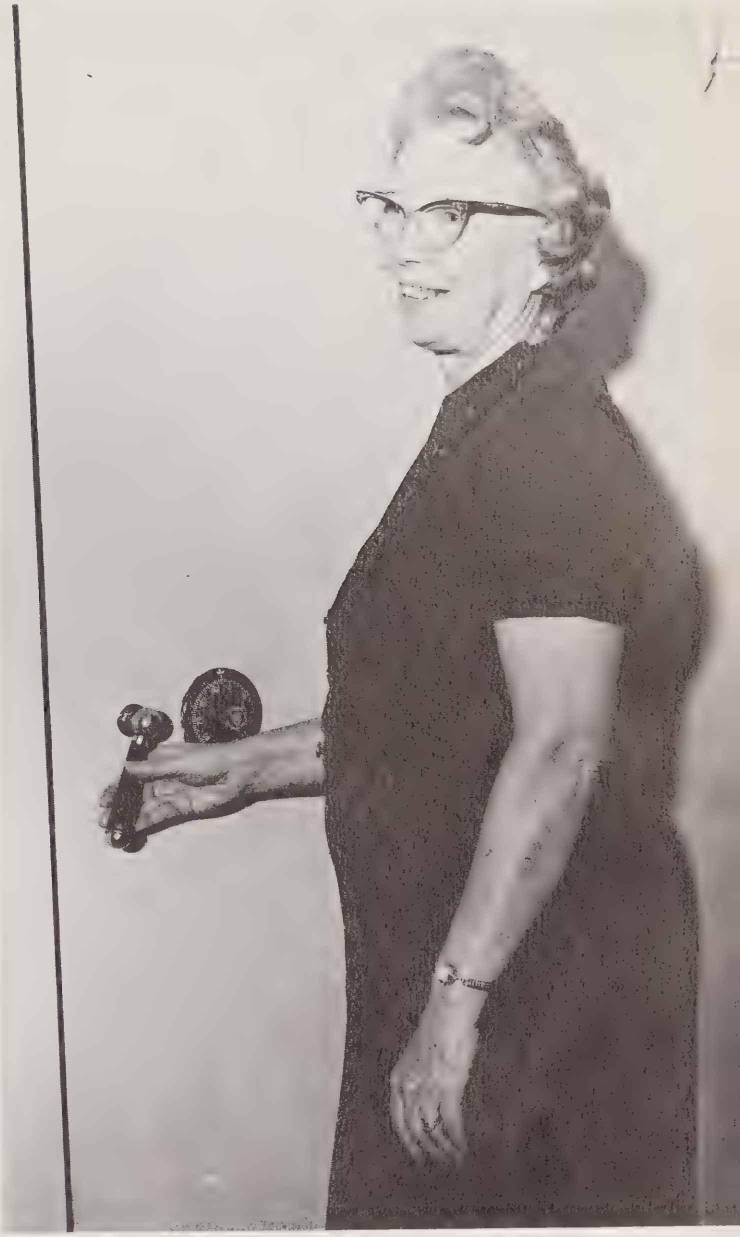
With organized work and efficient results, they have proved "Two heads are better than one"!



Over the many years spent here, we have confronted you with numerous problems and, sometimes, insurmountable obstacles. Through your patience and guidance, solutions were found and we continued to grow in knowledge and respect. You have helped implant education into our lives and responsibility into our characters. Dedicated work and a devoted attitude are two goals you have established to serve as our guides. Having been a vital part of our educational development, we wish to extend a well-deserved thank you.

Seniors '71

Assistant Principal, Jerry Long



Secretary, Sarah Pittman

Performing regular duties, Mrs. Pittman balances books and receipts, while Mr. Long prepares monthly bus reports.

Beginning each day with a prayer for our keeping,
waiting patiently for each stage of our development,
seeking new ways to aid us,
providing love, shelter, and understanding,
striving for perfection,
hoping for our future,
believing in us —
Dedicating this Sandspur to our Parents.

An impression of humility and a sense of humor characterized this well-rounded boy. Versatility is the key word in describing his abilities and talents. His calm nature and fresh attitudes, along with his welcome smile and pleasant disposition, implanted him in our hearts and minds, never to be forgotten.
